Meet the New Board!

Barbara Maple, President

Barbara Maple is well-qualified for the position of AIPC President given her proven capability and experience. She has established her credentials over her 20 years held in the role built up to 2010, when she led AIPC to a highly successful and much-deserved World Congress in Vancouver, B.C. of Canada.

President Maple has been an active AIPC member for the past 15 years and has contributed to enhancing excellence in centre management. She was involved in the World Congresses in Vancouver and Melbourne in 2005 and 2007, respectively. President Maple has been member of the AIPC Apex Award for the past 5 years and President Maple was also involved in the Apex Award for the World Congress in 2005.

President Maple has played a key role in the development of the International Congress Centre (ICC) in Innsbruck in Austria, the Vancouver Convention Centre and the Brisbane Convention & Exhibition Centre in Canada.

President Maple is the director of the Board of Management of Ogden IFC, Asia Pacific, which is the leading property group in Asia Pacific. She was involved in the development of the Brisbane Convention & Exhibition Centre in Australia.

President Maple is a highly respected leader in the meetings industry and is a member of several boards and committees, including the World Convention Association and the Meetings Industry Council.

President Maple has a passion for the development of the meetings industry and is committed to promoting the industry worldwide.

Meet the New Board!

Barbara Maple, President

Barbara Maple is well-qualified for the position of AIPC President given her proven capability and experience. She has established her credentials over her 20 years held in the role built up to 2010, when she led AIPC to a highly successful and much-deserved World Congress in Vancouver, B.C. of Canada.

President Maple has been an active AIPC member for the past 15 years and has contributed to enhancing excellence in centre management. She was involved in the World Congresses in Vancouver and Melbourne in 2005 and 2007, respectively. President Maple has been member of the AIPC Apex Award for the past 5 years and President Maple was also involved in the Apex Award for the World Congress in 2005.

President Maple has played a key role in the development of the International Congress Centre (ICC) in Innsbruck in Austria, the Vancouver Convention Centre and the Brisbane Convention & Exhibition Centre in Canada.

President Maple is the director of the Board of Management of Ogden IFC, Asia Pacific, which is the leading property group in Asia Pacific. She was involved in the development of the Brisbane Convention & Exhibition Centre in Australia.

President Maple is a highly respected leader in the meetings industry and is a member of several boards and committees, including the World Convention Association and the Meetings Industry Council.

President Maple has a passion for the development of the meetings industry and is committed to promoting the industry worldwide.
An annual conference explores the road to “Strategic Excellence”

Panel Discussion Explores Future Options

“Embrace Change” Says Keynote

New Conditions Require New Strategies, Says Parke

Quebec City: Canada’s Historic Jewel Creates the Perfect Conference Backdrop!